Your donation will help keep our online content free and Mute independent and generally around. Your donation will also contribute to completing our online archive of back issues (starting in 1994!) as well as the work of translating our content into different languages and distributing it in hard copy around the world.

How much should I give?

As much or as little as you like, but here are some suggestions:

£7 , e10 or $10 would be very welcome. Best of all would be an annual commitment of £30, e50 or $50 which would help us plan ahead.
