The legend published in Mute Vol II No. 1, which follows, is also being revised during Metamute.org's BETA period. Please contact <editorial AT metamute.org> if you have any questions.

Except for that which originally appeared elsewhere and is republished here, all content is copyright Mute and the authors. However, Mute encourages use of its content for purposes that are non-commercial, critical, or disruptive of capitalist property relations. If you are in any doubt as to whether an intended use meets these criteria, please contact us <editorial AT metamute.org> before publishing. In any case, make sure you credit the author and Mute as the original publisher.

This legend is devised in the absence of a licence which adequately represents Mute's contributors' respective positions on copyright, and to acknowledge but deny the copyrighting performed by default where copyright is waived.

Mute content and commisions are considered as copyleft and are freely available for personal use or if you are an non-commercial organisation. For commercial use please see our republishing section.
