Sunday 10 September 2006 1pm, ICA Theatre

Speed-data-radio: three dozen people talking for ninety minutes in a simultaneous series of open-ended round-table discussions, mixed live to air before a theatre audience. Participants include Willem de Ridder, William English, Rob Flint, Michael Franklin, Tim Girven, Loris Gréaud, Ariane Koek, Mark Pilkington, Ricardo Reis, Mark Vernon, Cecilia Wee and Xper.Xr. Subjects: radio, radio-art, radio, the (un)usual.

3pm, St James's Park Illusion is a Revolutionary Weapon: a radiophonic commission of Loris Gréaud, at the far end of inaudibility. World premiere on 104.4fm. Bring a radio.

7.30pm, ICA Theatre: The Harmon e. Phraisyar Show Live!: the world's most radical radio serial, at last in the flesh. With all-star cast, directed by Xentos Fray' Bentos. Texte trouvée: new work by the Resonance Radio Orchestra. Text assembled by Ed Baxter, music composed by Max O'Brien.

70 mph (you have no friends): on-air launch of Hong Kong conceptualist Xper.Xr's compact disc - and WD40 flavoured perfume. Willem de Ridder: first UK appearance in over a decade by legendary Fluxus multimedia artist and broadcaster. Plus very special guests. ICA, The Mall, London SW1Y 5AH ica.org.uk £7.00 all day/ £5.00 early or late
