Nick Crowe: Commemorative Glass

<http://www.cornerhouse.org/art/info.aspx?ID=355&page=0>

From Fri 1 December to Sun 28 January 2007

Nick Crowe's work encompasses a range of strategies which explore the role of technology and its contingent effects on everyday life. Widely known as a multi-media artist, he also has a specific interest in the use of glass as a contemporary artistic material. Commemorative Glass will be drawn from Crowe's evolving practice with glass, with works produced since 2000, many never before shown in the UK.
