Open Source Shorts

Open Source Shorts is a screening of short films released under Creative Commons licences.

Creative Commons licenses provide a flexible range of protections and freedoms for authors and artists and build on the "all rights reserved" concept of traditional copyright to offer a voluntary "some rights reserved" approach.

With Creative Commons licences people are free to copy distribute and remix creative works without the threat of being labelled pirates. The screening will be followed by a short discussion on Creative Commons. Support creativity support the commons.

This event is presented by Irish artist Kevin Flanagan at the Nuns Island Arts Centre, Galway Ireland at 5pm Saturday 2nd of December.

I am currently seeking submissions. The criteria are straight forward. The film should be at most 10 minutes in duration, published with a creative commons copyright licence and freely available to download from the internet.

I'm looking for variety and am open to different styles. Documentary, Narrative/Non-Narative, Art films, and Music Videos.

To submit a film simply email kev.flanagan@gmail.com your details with a description of your film with a link where I can view and download it from.

End date for submissions is the November 10th.
