[mnp] arts competition: the Gulbenkian Prize. de la warr pavilion

The De La Warr Pavilion in Bexhill-on-Sea has been long-listed for The Gulbenkian Prize for museums and galleries. This major cultural centre joins nine other UK museum and gallery projects to compete for the coveted £100,000 prize.

The Gulbenkian Prize for Museums and Galleries is the largest single arts prize in the UK and recognises and rewards the best new development in the previous year of a museum and gallery anywhere in the United Kingdom. It is the most prestigious independent arts prize in the country and the Pavilion is honoured and delighted to stand alongside its fellow nominees as one of the ten most outstanding arts projects in the UK in the past twelve months.
